SENATE BILL No. 235

DIGEST OF SB 235 (Updated January 16, 2008 4:15 pm - DI 102)

Citations Affected: IC 3-5; IC 3-11; noncode.

Synopsis: Vote centers. Establishes the use of vote centers as an option for all counties. Requires the county election board (board), by unanimous vote of its entire membership, to approve an order designating the county a vote center county. Requires all board members to sign the order, which must be filed with the election division. Requires the board to adopt a plan to administer the vote centers. Provides that designation of a county as a vote center county remains in effect until the board, by unanimous vote of its entire membership, rescinds the order designating the county as a vote center county and files a copy of the rescission with the election division. Redesignates automatically as a vote center county a county designated before July 1, 2008, as a vote center pilot county. Allows the secretary of state (secretary) to designate not later than March 15, 2008, one additional county as a vote center pilot county. Repeals the expiration date of the vote center program and provisions that: (1) require the secretary's approval of the vote center designation; and (2) allow the secretary to revoke the vote center designation.

Effective: January 1, 2008 (retroactive); July 1, 2008.
